

Chinese blue and white moulded teabowl and saucer, Kangxi (1662-1722) POA

Chinese blue and white moulded teabowl and saucer, Kangxi (1662-1722), with gently scalloped rims, the teabowl decorated inside and out with swirling panels containing floral boughs issuing from rockwork, the saucer rim with further floral panels around a central roundel containing a large peony head, flowers and leafy sprigs.

Dimensions:

Diameter of saucer: 13.3cm. (5 1/4 in.); height of teabowl: 5cm. (1 7/8 in.)

Condition:

One tiny frit to teabowl

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue decoration
Condition	Very good
Dimensions	Height of teabowl: 5cm. (1 7/8 in.)
Diameter	Diameter of saucer: 13.3cm. (5 1/4 in.)