

Signed Royal Worcester topographical plate POA

Fine quality Royal Worcester topographical cabinet plate painted by James Stinton. The signed central panel superbly painted of Tantallon Castle, a ruined mid-14th century fortress in East Lothian, Scotland. The borders with 6 vignettes with finely painted floral sprays. All highly decorated on a rich cobalt blue ground, picked out in gold. There are 4 assorted of these plates

Origin	British
Period	1920s
Style	Classical
Condition	Excellent
Hallmark	Royal Worcester mark with year code for 1923
Diameter	23cms