

Chinese blue and white baluster vase, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Chinese blue and white baluster vase, Kangxi (1662-1722), with wide sloping shoulders tapering to a flared footrim, decorated with prunus blossom on a cracked ice background, the neck with a ruyi-head band, with wooden cover.

Dimensions:

Height: 23.5cm. (9 1/2in.)

Condition: Chip to inside of rim

Notes:

This traditional design, with early blossoms and the thawing of winter ice, represents the coming of spring.

| | |
|-------------------------------|--|
| Material and Technique | Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue decoration |
| Origin | Chinese |
| Condition | Very good |
| Dimensions | Height: 23.5cm. (9 1/2in.) |

Antique ref: W579