

Charlotte Sayers 17th Century Diamond and Enamel Ring
£7,800.00

17th-century ring that has beautiful multi-coloured enamel decorated with flowers and a central rose-cut diamond. This ring has a partly chased shank. There is some enamel damage on four of the six petals but this is only visible with a loupe. So charming and such a rare survivor of an early enamel ring. Circa 1680

Current Ring Size: P

The head of the ring measures: 11mm

Please visit charlottesayers.com or get in touch at info@charlottesayers.com

Antique ref: CA9670