

Victorian 18kt gold and diamond and sapphire ring
£3,980.00

Victorian 18kt yellow gold and silver three - stone diamond and sapphire ring.
Made in Circa 1890s - 1900s

Design: The ring is crafted in 18kt gold with silver settings for the gemstones.

Gemstones: The centrepiece of the ring is a sapphire, flanked by two diamonds.

Setting: The use of gold for the band and silver for the settings is typical of the late Victorian era.

Pattern: The scrollwork pattern seen on the shoulders is highly reminiscent of Victorian motifs, which often included elaborate and romantic designs.

The combination of diamonds and sapphire in a three-stone setting symbolizes the past, present, and future in sentimental jewellery, often used in engagement rings during this period.
