This really is a gem of a find! An Omega Gold filled Bumper reference F6212 from 1947 in this condition is hard to find. The bumper automatic movement is a piece of art in its own right.

33mm 14ct Gold filled case that appears in all round very good condition with nothing other than general wear and tear marks but certainly nothing significant.

Silvered dial with gold coloured hands hour markers, subsidiary seconds dial to the bottom of the dial.

Fitted to a generic brown leather strap.

Our view - A very fine example, hard to believe from 1947 and remains in such good condition.
