

Russian silver canteen cutlery set for twelve people, Moscow c.1910 by Gustav Klingert.
£22,500.00

Russian silver canteen cutlery set for twelve people, Moscow c.1910 by Gustav Klingert.

Marked 84 Russian silver, with the maker's mark 'GK' in Cyrillic for Gustav Klingert.

Included:

16 serving pieces, which 14 of them are made of silver. Meat knife and fork made with silver handles.

Two salt cellars marked for 4 Artel.

Six silver cheese forks.

Twelve silver tablespoons.

Twelve table knives with silver handles.

Twelve tablespoons.

Twelve desert knives with silver handles.

Twelve desert forks.

Twelve desert spoons.

Twelve teaspoons.

Twelve fruit knives.

Twelve fruit forks.

Twelve coffee spoons.

Total Weight of Silver including serving pieces without the knife and fork with the steel blades. Also, table knives and desert knives are not included : 7120gr.

All pieces fits in the three floor original wooden case. Retailed by Tradehouse of Markov's Brothers .

Origin	Russian
Period	1910s
Condition	Excellent
Dimensions	Total Weight of Silver including serving pieces without the knife and fork with the steel blades. Also, table knives and desert knives are not included : 7120gr.

Antique ref: Moscow c.1910 by Gustav Klingert.