

Famille verte mustard cup and cover with metal mounts, mid-Kangxi (1662-1722)

POA

Famille verte mustard cup and cover with metal mounts, mid-Kangxi (1662-1722), decorated in enamels to the body with blooming chrysanthemum and daisies, with insects and a bird in flight, a band of green stippled ground with lotus, peony and butterflies above, the lid with finely painted spray of blossom and band of green stippled ground, the foot with a band of stiff leaves in iron red.

Dimensions:

Height: 9.8cm. (3 3/4in.); diameter (including handle): 10.8cm. (4 1/4in.)

Condition: Loss of enamels to base of the pot and small break in metal mount around rim of lid

Material and Technique

Porcelain with overglaze enamel decoration in the famille verte palette

Origin

Chinese

Period

18th Century

Condition

Very good

Dimensions

Height: 9.8cm. (3 3/4in.)

Diameter

(Including handle): 10.8cm. (4 1/4in.)

