

Antique 18th century silver gilt drinking cup, Germany
£3,950.00

An antique silver drinking cup in the form of a traveller man statue.
Made in Germany, Hanau, circa the late 18th century

Fully hallmarked with German hallmarks, alongside "13" mark, German standard for "13 lots" equivalent to 812/1000 silver grade.

The traveller's hat can be removed to pour a beverage inside and drink from it. On the back the man carries a rucksack where snacks can be store alongside the drink.