

Fine large Chinese famille verte baluster vase, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Fine large Chinese famille verte baluster vase, Kangxi (1662-1722), decorated in bright famille verte enamels, the body with four large panels containing baskets of flowers, against a white ground with writhing blue dragons, all above a large band to the foot divided into alternate panels decorated with mythical beasts and birds and branches, the neck with a band of scrolling chrysanthemum and peony heads.

Dimensions:

Height: 45.7cm. (18in.)

Condition: This jar has been in pieces but has been restored to a very high standard.

Material and Technique	Porcelain with enamel decoration in the famille verte palette
Origin	Chinese
Dimensions	Height: 45.7cm. (18in.)

Antique ref: X703