

Chinese famille verte wall vase, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Chinese famille verte wall vase, Kangxi (1662-1722), decorated with phoenix, cranes and other birds flying above a peony garden, where a further pair of phoenix, or fenghuang, perch amongst the rockwork and blooming flowerheads, the flared footrim with a band of beribboned babao and the rim with a band of red and green stippled floral cell.

Material and Technique

Porcelain with overglaze enamel decoration in the famille verte palette

Origin

Chinese

Dimensions

Height: 29.6cm. (11 11/16in.)

Antique ref: Y142