

Chinese famille verte figure of a boy, Kangxi (1662-1722) POA

Chinese famille verte figure of a boy, Kangxi (1662-1722), standing on a rectangular base decorated with peony and holding a vase of lotus, wearing a tunic decorated with flowers, precious babao and ruyi-heads to the shoulders.

Height: 27cm. (10 5/8in.)

Condition:

Neatly restored break to neck.

Notes:

A similar figure can be found in the collection of the Metropolitan Museum of Art (32.100.426)

Material and Technique	Porcelain with overglaze enamel decoration in the famille verte palette
Origin	Chinese
Dimensions	Height: 27cm. (10 5/8in.)

Antique ref: V10