

Near pair of Chinese famille-verte ovoid jars, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Near pair of Chinese famille-verte ovoid jars, Kangxi (1662-1722) decorated with panels of flowering plants including chrysanthemum, cherry and plum issuing from rockwork, with flying insects overhead, all below large iron-red ruyi head lappets containing white foliate scrolls, the necks and feet encircled by bands of green stippled ground with half flowerheads.

Height: 17.5cm. (6 7/8in.)

Condition: One has had a drilled hole in the base filled

Material and Technique

Porcelain with overglaze enamel decoration in the famille verte palette

Origin

Chinese

Dimensions

Height: 17.5cm. (6 7/8in.)

Antique ref: JB32