

Chinese famille verte charger, Kangxi (1662-1722)

POA

Chinese famille verte charger, Kangxi (1662-1722), finely decorated with basket of flowers including peony, chrysanthemum, lotus and cherry blossom, the rim with a narrow band containing half flower heads against a jade green ground, the reverse with six heads of lotus, a lotus-petal band in red and green and a central lozenge babao mark representing a mirror within concentric circles.

Condition: Hair crack and chips neatly restored.

Notes:

A similar charger can be found in the National Trust (Chastleton House, Oxfordshire) Collection, NT 1429747.

Material and Technique	Porcelain with overglaze enamel decoration in the famille verte palette
Origin	Chinese
Diameter	approx. 38.2cm. (15in.)

Antique ref: X771