

Ladies Gold and Enamel Half Hunter by Patek Philippe
£5,500.00

A small late 19 Century Swiss lever by Patek Philippe in a gold and enamel half hunter case. Keyless gilt bar movement with going barrel, frosted steel wolfs teeth winding work. Plain cock with polished steel regulator. Compensation balance with blue steel spiral hairspring. Club foot lever escapement, the lever with counterbalance extension arms extended beyond the pallets. Escape pivots with endstones in a polished steel setting. White enamel dial with Roman numerals, blue steel hands. Small 18 carat gold and enamel half hunter case. The chapter ring on the front cover in light pink translucent enamel over an engine turned ground, dark blue Roman numerals. Around the chapter a border of blue forget-me-nots. The back cover similarly decorated, centred with a polychrome bouquet of flowers. Signed and numbered gold cuvette, maker's mark "PP & Co" in a rectangle.

Signed Patek Philippe & Co - Geneve
 Circa 1875
 Diameter 33 mm

Origin	European Other
Period	19th Century
Style	Classical
Condition	Excellent
Materials	Enamel

