

Large graduated pair of Chinese famille rose sleeve vases, Yongzheng (1723-35)

POA

Large graduated pair of Chinese famille rose sleeve vases, Yongzheng (1723-35), each with a leaf-shaped cartouche containing a landscape with pine, pagodas and mountains visible in the background; the bodies of the vases also decorated with an assortment of vessels containing flowering branches of peony, finger fruit and peaches scattered at their feet, the rims with cracked-ice pomegranates and foliated red cell ground palmates with peonies, ruyi heads and leafy scrollwork in gilt below a pink diaper band and brown glazed rim.

Dimensions:

Height: 40 cm. (15 3/4in.) and 42 cm. (16 1/2in.)

Condition:

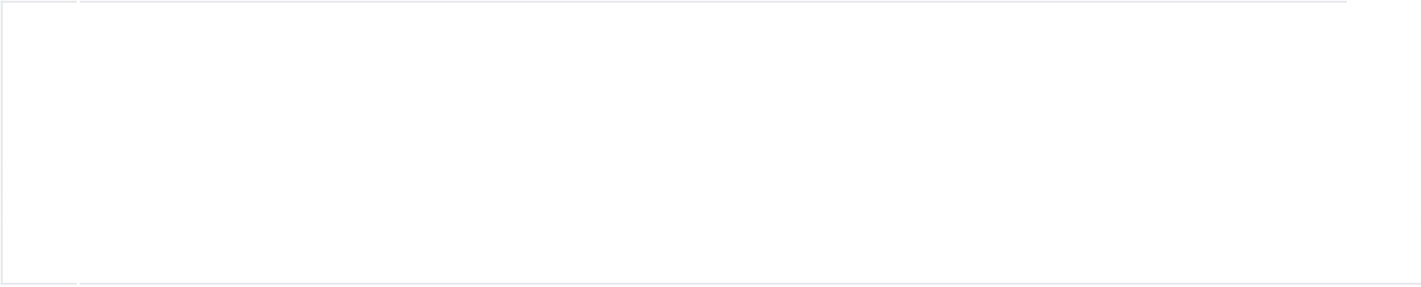

Shorter vase with old restoration to rim and lacking a portion of the rim, the taller vase with old restoration to the rim

Notes:

A baluster vase with the same decoration can be found in the collection of the National Trust at Lanhydrock, Cornwall (NT 881043)

Material and Technique

Porcelain with overglaze enamel decoration

Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Dimensions	Height: 40 cm. (15 3/4in.) and 42 cm. (16 1/2in.)

Antique ref: W571