

Vintage 9kt Rose Gold Cufflinks with Enamel Coats of Arms £450.00

Vintage 9kt Rose Gold Cufflinks with Enamel Coats of Arms.

A pair of oval-shaped vintage cufflinks crafted in 9kt rose gold, featuring colourful enamel heraldic designs. The shields are divided into four quarters, each representing symbolic values:

Top Left (Blue with Dove): Symbolizing loyalty and peace, the dove with an olive branch reflects spirituality.

Top Right (Gold with Chevron): A gold field for generosity, a black chevron for protection, and a possible beehive for industry or hard work.

Bottom Left (Black with Crown): A crown, set against a black field for constancy, suggests nobility or leadership.

Bottom Right (Blue with Dove): Reinforces peace and spirituality, echoing the top left quarter.

Dimensions:

Length: 3 cm

Width: 1.8 cm

Weight: 7 grams

Condition: The enamel shows minor damage in places, but the intricate details remain clear and vibrant. A beautiful example of heraldic symbolism and craftsmanship.

Origin

British

Period	1960s
---------------	-------

Materials	Enamel
------------------	--------

Carat for Gold	9 K
-----------------------	-----

Antique ref: Vintage 9kt Rose Gold Cufflinks with Enamel Coats of Arms.