£1,250.00

Stuart Devlin vintage limited edition silver gilt Surprise Gift " Christmas carol themed '
Made in England, London, 1972
Numbered 210/500
Fully hallmarked.

Material: Silver-gilt

Theme: Christmas surprise gift – part of Devlin's highly collectible and iconic range of Christmas-themed creations.

Design: The figurine depicts two characters, likely engaged in a lively conversation or story. They are standing under a streetlamp, suggesting a Victorian or Edwardian theme.

One character is wearing a top hat and gesturing animatedly, while the other appears to be leaning slightly forward, listening intently.

The cobblestone-textured base adds to the thematic detail, evoking a street setting.

Base: The circular base is with smooth polished edges and a textured top.

Theme: The lamp-post and attire suggest this could be inspired by Charles Dickens' era or a festive scene, aligning with Devlin's imaginative approach to storytelling through sculpture.
