

Pair of Chinese blue and white oval bowls, late Qianlong (1736-95)
POA

Pair of Chinese blue and white oval bowls, late Qianlong (1736-95), with barbed foliate rims, decorated in the centres with blooming peony and other flowers in a fenced rocky garden, the interior rims with four floral cartouches against a latticed ground, the exterior with floral sprays and curling tendrils against a moulded basket weave pattern.

Condition: Frits to rim

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue decoration
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Very good
Diameter	14.8cm. (5 7/8in.)

Antique ref: X811