

C.A. Giuliano 18kt gold and Enamel and Gem-Set Brooch
£32,800.00

This exquisite Victorian brooch was crafted in the 1890s by the renowned jeweller C.A. Giuliano, a master of intricate enamel and gemstone designs. Made from 18kt gold and fully hallmarked with the Giuliano maker's mark, this brooch embodies the elegance and artistry of the Victorian era.

Features and Design

Motif: Floral-inspired design with vibrant green enamel leaves.

Central Gemstone:

1 Amethyst, approx. 9 carats, cushion cut, as the focal point.

Accent Gemstones:

15 Blue Sapphires: Approx. 1.5 carats total, mixed oval and round cuts.

2 Rubies: Approx. 0.20 carats each, round cut.

2 Amethysts: Approx. 2.5 carats each, oval cut.

2 Citrines: Approx. 2 carats each, oval cut.

2 White Sapphires: Approx. 2 carats each, oval cut.

The brooch also features a drop pendant section adorned with additional gemstones and green enamel leaves, completing its dynamic and elegant design.

Dimensions and Weight

Size: 7.5 cm x 5.5 cm

Weight: 26 grams

Materials and Hallmarks

Gold: Crafted in 18kt gold.

Hallmark: Fully hallmarked with the C.A. Giuliano maker's mark, ensuring authenticity.

Condition

Excellent condition with minimal signs of wear, characteristic of a well-preserved antique piece from the Victorian era.

This C.A. Giuliano brooch is a masterpiece of fine jewelry, showcasing the iconic craftsmanship of one of the Victorian era's most celebrated jewelers.

Condition	Very good
Materials	Gold
Carat for Gold	18 K

Antique ref: C.A. Giuliano 18kt gold and Enamel and Gem-Set Brooch