This Omega Chronostop has just benefited from passing through our workshop so its in exceptional working order. Purposely left unpolished and original where it can be. Dated to 1969 by the serial number we have added a bit of its own personality in a new green strap and steel buckle but ofcourse this could be changed to suit your requirements. The key part is that its in great working order.

35mm stainless steel cushion shaped case which is synonymous with the Chronostop range. Grey dial with that iconic track around the outside. Vibrant orange hand for the seconds with white hands that have faded over time for the minutes and hours.

Plexiglass and due to age not considered waterproof. Manual wind operating from a 865 Calibre movement giving a power reserve of up to 40 hours.
