

Schroth Jewelers silver and enamel octagonal box
£2,250.00

A handcrafted sterling silver (925) octagonal box, made in the USA circa 1950s, by renowned silversmith Wolfgang Karl Schroth and featuring enamel artwork by Daniel Sigal. The hinged lid showcases a vibrant seascape enamel, depicting a sailboat with a striped blue-and-white spinnaker and yellow sail amidst dynamic waves under a partly cloudy sky. The smooth silver frame complements the intricate enamel scene, while the body features a minimalist polished design.

Key Points:

Maker: Wolfgang Karl Schroth (1928–2011)

Enamel Artist: Daniel Sigal

Material: Sterling silver 925, enamel

Design: Octagonal shape, enamel seascape scene

Dimensions: 13.7 x 5.2 cm

Weight: 569 grams

Period: Circa 1950s

Condition: Pre-owned, minor signs of use, overall good condition

About the Makers:

Wolfgang Karl Schroth: German-American silversmith celebrated for precise, handcrafted silver designs, including notable collaborations with Tiffany & Co.

Daniel Sigal: Enamel artist specializing in Limoges-style enamels with maritime and landscape themes, known for his collaboration with prominent silversmiths.

This silver and enamel box exemplifies mid-20th-century American craftsmanship, combining the artistry of Schroth and Sigal in a collectible piece.

Origin	American
Period	1960s
Condition	Good

Antique ref: Schroth Jewelers silver and enamel octagonal box