Watch: Tag Heuer Professional 200 WA1411

Price: £395.00

This has been a hard watch to research and compare too! Despite having similar models in the past this is the first we have had in this configuration and there are very few anywhere for sale most likely due to the similarities with the recent Tag Heuer x Kith range.

27mm stainless steel case with a black plastic rotating. Beautiful yellow dial that possibly would have been lighter originally but over time a natural patina has occurred to give a beautiful vintage feel and look. The red outside track completes the look with the Tag Heuer logo smartly used as the hour markers at 12, 6 and 9. Date window to 3.

Classic Tag Heuer hands in black as are the dot hour markers set off against the yellow.

Fitted to a generic black leather strap and buckle. Quartz powered with a recent battery change.

Condition - Clearly used and at least over 25 years old, we have left unpolished as we believe that to be the natural beauty of the watch so will show marks and scratches here and there which will show its age. In our view nothing to take away from the watch or any marks that are significant.

Vintage, Unique piece that is ready to go accompanied with our standard pouch and guarantee,
