

Small Japanese Arita Imari bowl, c.1700 POA

Small Japanese Arita Imari bowl, c.1700, decorated to the exterior with stylised tulip-shaped cartouches and sprays of flowers including peony, prunus, dianthus and chrysanthemum, the foot with blue arabesque scroll and the rim with small star cartouches against red cell ground; the interior rim with an undulating band of chrysanthemum and rockwork, the central well with a cockerel and hen beside a spray of cherry blossom and a flowing river.

Condition: Small chip to rim

Material and Technique

Porcelain with enamel decoration in the Imari palette

Origin

Japanese

Period

18th Century

Diameter

12cm. (4 3/4in.)

Antique ref: G246