

Japanese Imari barber's bowl, c.1700
POA

Japanese Imari barber's bowl, c.1700, decorated to the centre with a jardinière of peony and sprays of millet, the rim with swirling cloud and prunus flowers against a blue ground adorned with cash coins and scrolling gilt ribbons, the reverse with two sprays of plum and narrow bands of underglaze blue.

Condition: Good

| | |
|-------------------------------|---|
| Material and Technique | Porcelain with overglaze enamel decoration in the Imari palette |
| Origin | Japanese |
| Period | 18th Century |
| Condition | Excellent |
| Diameter | 26cm. (10 1/4in.) |

Antique ref: Y808