

Japanese blue and white octagonal dish, 18th century
POA

Japanese blue and white octagonal dish, 18th century, decorated to the central roundel with a lakeside boating scene, containing a figure upon a boat with a canopy and two further figures on the rocky shore; one elderly figure in a bath chair and an attendant alongside, with a tree and plantain; a low hall or temple visible amongst mountains visible across the water; the rim with six scalloped cartouches containing inscriptions alternating with various cell and diaper pattern grounds.

Material and Technique	Porcelain with blue decoration
Origin	Japanese
Period	18th Century
Diameter	17cm. (6 3/4in.)

Antique ref: X331