

Pair of Japanese Imari saucers, early 18th century
POA

Pair of Japanese Imari saucers, early 18th century, each decorated with a central roundel in reserve containing a single floral sprig, the wide gently curving sides with three cloud-shaped cartouches in reserve containing flowers issuing from fenced flowerbeds, against a blue ground with large peony heads and scrolling gilt foliage.

Material and Technique	Porcelain with overglaze enamelled and gilt decoration in the Imari palette
Origin	Japanese
Period	18th Century
Diameter	10.4cm. (4 1/8in.)

Antique ref: Y164