

Rare Japanese bronze group of Buddha holding a child with a peach in its hand, late 18th century
POA

Rare Japanese bronze group of Buddha holding a child with a peach in its hand, late 18th century, standing upon an upturned lotus flower which is placed on an inscribed octagonal base; one of the inscriptions is a temple dedication, another dates the piece to the Edo period of Kansei (1789-1801); while another names the four donors.

Condition: Some damage

Material and Technique	Bronze
Origin	Japanese
Period	18th Century
Dimensions	Height including stand: 44cm. (17 1/4in.)

Antique ref: P233