

Japanese bronze figure of an ibis, 19th century, Meiji period (1868-1912)
POA

Japanese bronze figure of an ibis, 19th century, Meiji period (1868-1912); the bird depicted in a seated position with its legs tucked underneath its body, decorated with incised featherwork.

Condition: Small dent to underside of tail, surface scratching

Material and Technique	Bronze
Origin	Japanese
Period	19th Century
Dimensions	Length: 7.6cm. (3in.)

Antique ref: G566