

Boucheron Art Deco Platinum Diamond and Sapphire Bracelet
£21,500.00

Boucheron Art Deco Platinum Diamond and Sapphire Bracelet (Circa 1920s)

This exquisite Boucheron bracelet, crafted in the 1920s, exemplifies the geometric precision characteristic of the Art Deco era. The bracelet is made from platinum and features a striking design with alternating sections of diamonds and natural blue sapphires. Fully hallmarked by Boucheron Paris.

Details:

Maker: Boucheron Paris

Year: 1920s

Material: 900-purity platinum

Weight: 23 grams

Dimensions:

Length: 18 cm

Width: 0.8 cm

Gemstone Details:

Diamonds:

Quantity: 124 old European cut diamonds

Total Weight: Approximately 2.5 carats

Clarity: VS1

Colour: F-G

Sapphires:

Quantity: 16 triangle-cut natural blue sapphires

Total Weight: Approximately 2.4 carats

This piece features a secure clasp mechanism and showcases the clean lines and symmetry that define Art Deco jewellery. A collectible and wearable example of early 20th-century French design, made by one of the most iconic jewellery houses.

Condition: Pre-owned, excellent condition.

Origin	French
Period	1920s
Style	Art Deco
Condition	Very good
Materials	Platinum
Main Gemstone	Sapphire

Antique ref: Boucheron Art Deco Platinum Diamond and Sapphire Bracelet