

Victorian Diamond Necklace - Charlotte Sayers
£24,500.00

This is a true show-stopper of a necklace from Charlotte Sayers. From the Victorian era featuring an outstanding total of 13 carats of rose cut diamonds. This necklace has a stunning chain link design with diamond spacers, handcrafted in silver and gold. This necklace features a concealed diamond clasp and an accompanying safety chain. Pieces like this are so rare to come across. Circa 1830-40.

Measurements: 39cm long

Provenance:

Lady Cecilia Maude Howard (1868-1947), daughter of George Howard, 9th Earl of Carlisle, descendent of Catherine Howard, 5th wife of Henry VIII. Thence by descent.

<https://charlottesayers.com/products/victorian-diamond-necklace-1>

Antique ref: CAX354