This Omega Chronometer Electronic Geneve 198.021 F300Mhz is Screaming 70's this and is in fine working order.

This Omega Genève Chronometer Electronic is the gold-plated version. First introduced in 1971, this model features a gold-plated case with steel back plate, adding a touch of elegance to its design.

The battery powered movement has been tested in our workshop with all functions working as they should and guaranteed to that effect.

Champagne gold coloured dial with date window at 3.

40mm stainless-steel gold-plated case. Logo and hour markers all clearly visible.

Fitted to a generic black leather strap and gold-plated buckle.

Available now.

Our view - Vintage Omega Genève Electronic models, especially the gold-plated versions, are sought after by collectors, this we believe is a great example and as such would make a good addition to any collection.
