

A Chinese famille rose 'Double peacock' dish, Qianlong (1736-1795)
POA

A Chinese famille rose 'Double peacock' dish, Qianlong (1736-1795), painted in enamels and gilt, the centre with a peacock and peahen perched on rockwork beside a large peony-blossom amongst various flowering branches, within a spear-head border to the cavetto, the wide rim with garlands of flowers enclosed by a geometric patterned border, interspersed by cartouches containing scrolls, diameter: 28 cm. (11 1/8in.), condition: shallow frit to rim.

King Joao VI of Portugal is known to have owned a service in this pattern,

Material and Technique	Enamelled porcelain
Origin	Oriental Other
Style	Other
Condition	Good
Diameter	Diameter 28cm. (11 1/8)

Antique ref: W275