

Emerald Cut Diamond in Platinum date circa 1980, SHAPIRO & Co since 1979 £6,750.00

D-colour diamonds, representing the pinnacle of colourlessness in the diamond grading scale, were established by the Gemological Institute of America (GIA) in the 1950s as part of a standardised colour grading system, moving away from subjective descriptions to a clear, objective scale.

Period	1980s
Condition	Excellent
Materials	Platinum
Main Gemstone	Diamond

Main GemstoneCut Emerald Cut

Main Gemstone
Clarity VS1

Main Gemstone
Carat 1ct

Main Diamond
Colour D

Secondary
Gemstone Diamond

Secondary
Gemstone Carat Small Diamonds 0.30ct approximately

Antique ref: SHAPIRO & Co