Vintage 1948 Longines Dress Watch | Dennison Case | Manual Wind

Step back in time with this authentic 1948 Longines dress watch, a true vintage piece with classic craftsmanship. Housed in a Dennison 13322 case, this watch has aged gracefully, showcasing a unique patina that reflects its rich history.

Key Features:

Original 1948 production – A genuine piece of horological history.
Stainless steel 34/35mm case – Durable with a semi-bubble back design.
Naturally aged dial – Once white, now a warm vintage yellow with faded Longines branding.
Manual wind movement – Still running strong at -20 seconds per day with good amplitude.
Fitted to a brown leather strap – A classic pairing for a vintage watch.
Later replacement crown – Ensuring continued functionality.

Condition & Details:

Case in good shape – Preserving its original form.
Plexiglass has a crack to the left – Adds character but could be replaced if desired.
Dial shows clear wear and patina – Natural aging enhances its vintage appeal.

Why Buy This Vintage Longines?

Over 80 years old – A remarkable survivor from 1948.
Classic and collectible – A perfect entry-level vintage dress watch.
Affordable for its history – A true bargain for a Longines of this age.

An exceptional vintage timepiece with history, charm, and classic Longines craftsmanship. Don't miss this unique collector's find!
