

1720 Spanish silver casket/box
POA

Small silver casket in the shape of a travelling trunk. These trunks were made in the early 1700 in Spain and in Mexico. The Mexican types were covered in tortoise shell and mother of pearl, this can be seen on this small silver version engraved as a decoration. Unmarked.

Measurements : 80 x 65 x 47 mm

Antique ref: 032