

Chinese famille verte biscuit mountain brushwasher POA

Chinese famille verte biscuit mountain brushwasher, Kangxi (1662-1722), with wooden stand, modelled as two pagoda's situated against a rocky backdrop with pine, in the foreground a shaped pond, the sides issuing lotus stems, condition: foliage and back panel restored. For a similarly enamelled Kangxi biscuit model of a mountain see William R. Sargent, Treasures of Chinese Export from the Peabody Essex Museum, p. 450, pl. 247.

Origin	Oriental Other
Period	17th Century
Condition	Very good
Dimensions	Height: 18.8cm. (7 3/8in.)
Material and Technique	Porcelain with overglaze enamel decoration in the famille verte palette

Antique ref: U238