

Dutch Delft faience dish POA

Dutch Delft faience dish, c.1700, decorated in blue and yellow enamels with a portrait of King William of Orange between the initials 'KW' within concentric circles, within a patterned border of tulips; condition: some scratches to glaze, four chips and fritting to rim. Following the 'Glorious Revolution' of 1688 William began joint rule of England, Scotland and Ireland with his wife Mary

Origin	European Other
Period	18th Century
Condition	Very good
Diameter	21.5cm. (8 ½ in.)

Antique ref: W126