

A FINE PAIR OF CHINESE BLUE AND WHITE POUNCE POTS, KANGXI
(1662 – 1722)
POA

Of squat stem shape with slightly flaring foot, following a European metal form, the bowl painted with a broad band of peony blooms around the sand perforations, an incised blue line at the rim and on the reverse of the bowl a border of single flower heads, the stem decorated with a band of scholars' objects, the foot further decorated with a continuous band of flowering sprays within incised blue lines, the footrim unglazed, the slightly recessed base glazed.

Origin	Chinese
Period	17th Century
Dimensions	Height: 6.25 cm

Antique ref: AM62