

Chinese miniature blanc de chine figure
POA

Chinese miniature blanc de chine figure, Kangxi (1662-1722), of a Dutch rider on horseback carrying a vessel, his right hand raised. Condition: some damage. The rider's Western tricorn hat would have been moulded separately and attached with a small amount of slip before firing, as hats usually were. For a very similar example see 'Blanc de Chine: The Porcelain of Dehua', P.J. Donnelly, Faber and Faber, London 1969, plate 120

Origin	Oriental Other
Period	17th Century
Condition	Good
Dimensions	height: 7.6cm. (3in.)

Antique ref: W128