

Chinese canton enamel winepot, Qianlong (1736-95) POA

Chinese canton enamel winepot, Qianlong (1736-95), the chamfered body raised on four low feet and decorated with four panels, three of which contain scenes with dignitaries, ladies, children and attendants in outdoor settings, the other with a dramatic landscape with cliffs and a small dwelling against a backdrop of mountains; all against dense foliate scroll on a pale blue ground, the neck and spout with further floral scroll in blue and pink, the tall handle with narrow floral cartouches and the lid decorated with a radiating pattern of petals and leaves the base with a central square seal.

Condition: The handle previously broken and restored, small flake to body repainted, the cover restored

Material and Technique

Metal with canton enamel polychrome decoration

Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Other
Dimensions	Height: 17.8cm. (7 in.)

Antique ref: U917