

Large Chinese octagonal famille rose tureen and cover, Qianlong (1736-95)

POA

Large Chinese octagonal famille rose tureen and cover, Qianlong (1736-95), with moulded hare-head handles, the body decorated with sprays of flowers issuing from rockwork, the shallow domed cover similarly decorated with floral sprays above a lambrequin border to the rim and flame finial within a border of gilt cracked ice pattern against an orange ground, the spreading foot similarly decorated with a wide band of cracked ice interspersed by shaped cartouches containing flowers to the canted corners.

Diameter of basin: 30cm. (11 ¾ in.); height: 17cm. (6 ¾ in.)

Condition: Good; tiny fritting to foot, underside of handles, minute chips to underside of cover.

Material and Technique

Porcelain with famille rose enamels

Origin

Chinese

Period

18th Century

Condition

Other

Dimensions

Diameter of basin: 30cm. (11 $\frac{3}{4}$ in.); height: 17cm. (6 $\frac{3}{4}$ in.)

Antique ref: U748