

A museum quality travel case by Henry Dumenil POA

An absolutely remarkable travel case made by the prestigious Henry Dumenil. Hand crafted in London 1922/1923 this amazing case had been in storage since it was bought in 1924. It is in pristine condition.

The case has an outer protective cover, it is made from distressed camel leather. Fully silk lined and comprising of the following:

A soapbox.

A travel clock.

A drink flask

8 crystal vanity bottles/jars.