

A CHINESE ARMORIAL TEAPOT AND COVER , QIANLONG 1736-1795 POA

Of oval form, with c-shaped handle, straight spout and low domed cover finished with a bud finial, the body boldly painted in shades of overglaze blue with large well-drawn flowering branches, including lotus, continuing around the pot, an armorial painted on either side of the pot in iron-red, black and gilding of a cockerel holding a branch in its beak above a winged coronet, both below a border of fleur-de-lys outlined in iron-red and gilding around the base of the short neck, the cover similarly decorated with large blossoming blooms and a fleur-de-lys border around the rim, the base glazed.

Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Dimensions	Height: 12.5 cm; 5 in

Antique ref: BC60