

A CHINESE KANGXI BLUE AND WHITE PLATE, KANGXI (1662 - 1722)
POA

Of round form with foliate rim, decorated in shades of underglaze blue, the well painted in sprays of chrysanthemum, lotus, prunus and peony, set within a border of eight lotus petal panels, each enclosing an individual flower, reserved against a 'cracked ice' ground, the underside of the rim painted with auspicious emblems including chimes, the base glazed, and with a six character mark reading 'Precious object of rare jade among treasured vessels'.

| | |
|-----------------|-----------------|
| Origin | Chinese |
| Period | 18th Century |
| Diameter | 26 cm; 10 ¼ ins |

Antique ref: BG01