

A MAGNIFICENT PAIR OF ITALIAN PALERMO MAIOLICA PHARMACY
JARS , CIRCA 1600
POA

Of ovoid form with a deep rim at the neck, boldly painted in shades of black, yellow and grey, with military trophies, including a coat of arms, all on a blue ground, reserved with a cartouche within a gadrooned frame, one depicting a lady with a laurel branch, the other depicting Christ bearing a cross, all in yellow, ochre, green, white and blue, bands of foliate scrolls on an ochre ground above and below.

PROVENANCE

From the collection of Bryan Hall, the Old Rectory, Banningham, Norfolk.

Origin	Italian
Period	17th Century
Dimensions	Height: 36 cm (14 ¼ in); 35.8cms (14 ins)

Antique ref: AN10 AN11