

Chinese famille verte plate, Kangxi (1662-1722) POA

Chinese famille verte plate, Kangxi (1662-1722), decorated in fine enamels with a pheasant crouching on rockwork amongst flowering peony, the reverse with a closed lozenge in underglaze cobalt blue. The closed lozenge represents a mirror, one of the eight precious treasures symbolising unbroken conjugal happiness.

Diameter: 35.2cm. (13 7/8 in.)

Condition: Piece out of rim with associated hairline, two further hairlines (one forked), two shallow chips and slight fritting

<https://www.chinese-porcelain-art.com/item/W283/famille-verte-plate-kangxi-1662-1722/>

Material and Technique	Porcelain with famille verte enamels
Origin	Chinese
Period	Pre 1900
Style	Other
Condition	Other
Diameter	Diameter: 35.2cm. (13 7/8 in.)

Antique ref: W283