

Art Deco Sapphire Diamond and Platinum Ring, Circa 1930 £29,000.00

An Art Deco sapphire and diamond oval plaque ring, with an Edwardian-cut diamond, in the centre of a decorative openwork cluster of round brilliant and Edwardian-cut diamonds, in millegrain edged rub over and grain settings, superimposed on a surround of invisibly set calibré-cut sapphires, with an eight-cut diamond set in each shoulder, with a scroll pierced gallery below, mounted in platinum, circa 1930. The centre diamond weighs approximately 0.71ct, our opinion of the colour is and our opinion of the clarity is VS2.

Period	1990s
Style	Art Deco
Condition	Good
Materials	Platinum
Main Gemstone	Diamond
Main Gemstone Cut	Brilliant Cut
Ring Size	G
Dimensions	Approximately 23.3 x 15.3mm

Antique ref: XMC26719R