

Art Deco Diamond and Platinum Cocktail Wristwatch, Circa 1925
£15,000.00

An Art Deco diamond cocktail wristwatch, with a rectangular, silvered dial with Art Deco style Arabic numerals, marked Swiss, with small blue steel hands, in a rectangular platinum two part case, set with eight-cut and marquise-cut diamonds in the bezel, lugs and bracelet, and baguette cut diamond set shoulders, in a geometric Art Deco design, the bracelet is a modified trace chain design of alternating oval and pointed links, mounted in platinum, the inside of the case is stamped 10% irid plat, the manual wind movement is signed Zimet and has seventeen jewels. The outer case back is engraved with a monogram. The estimated diamond weight is 6.00ct. Circa 1925.

Period	1920s
Style	Art Deco
Condition	Good

Materials	Platinum
Main Gemstone	Diamond
Main Gemstone Cut	Baguette Cut
Main Gemstone Carat	Total 6.00ct
Dimensions	Length, approximately 177.8mm
Origin	American

Antique ref: S141114W2