

Viennese silver and gilt table clock, Austria c. 1890
£6,250.00

Viennese silver and gilt table clock encrusted with jewels. The silver dial cast with figures holding a crown above a "G" on a pedestal inscribed "Vict London" to the centre. The dial encircled by a silver and gilt petalled surround studded with simulated rubies and turquoise beads and surmounted by an eagle finial with outspread wings. The columnar pedestal and plinth base engraved with scrolling foliage mounted with simulated gemstones. The column having an oval opening to the front revealing a gilded niche with Saint Cecilia playing an organ. Standing on lion paw feet.

Size:

Height: 28 cm

Origin	Austrian
Period	Early 1900s

Condition

Very good

Antique ref: Viennese silver clock